HEALTH CENTER WELCOMES THREE NEW MEMBERS TO ITS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

New Haven, CT — The Cornell Scott-Hill Health Center, a leading provider of community healthcare for over forty years, is pleased to announce the additions of Natalia Treloar, Angel Fernandez-Chavero, and Orlando Cordero to its Board of Directors.

"We are fortunate to have an outstanding Board of Directors whose members have a wealth of experience to share as well as a diverse range of opinions that contribute to the overall success of this organization. The additions of Ms. Treloar, Mr. Fernandez-Chavero and Mr. Cordero only enhance that diversity and expertise. We are thrilled to have them on board," said Michael Taylor, the health center's Chief Executive Officer.

Andrea Jackson Brooks, the Board's president, added:

"We look forward to working with the new Board members to help the Cornell Scott-Hill Health Center continue on its current path of growth and expansion in order to create more access to care for those in the communities we serve."

The newly elected members will serve a three year term.

Natalia Treloar

Natalia Treloar currently serves as a Banking Center Manager for Bank of America in New Haven, Connecticut. She has expertise in banking and finance and has provided financial education and personal management to groups throughout greater New Haven.

Angel Fernandez-Chavero

Angel Fernandez-Chavero is the founder and Managing Director for Aspire Praxis LLC, a New Haven-based business that works with individuals and organizations to help them with everything from strategic planning to donor cultivation to public relations. Fernandez-Chavero has expertise in the governance of nonprofit organizations, fundraising, charitable law/policy and philanthropic advising. He has provided leadership and guidance on health care issues and issues important to Hispanic immigrants to individuals and organizations throughout greater New Haven

Orlando Cordero

Mr. Cordero is an Attorney at the Law Offices of Orlando Cordero in New Haven, Connecticut. Mr. Cordero was born and raised in New Haven and utilized the health center's services as a child and young adult. In addition to his legal expertise, Mr. Cordero has provided leadership to Hispanic student organizations.

In addition to Treloar, Fernandez-Chavero and Cordero, the members of the health center's Board are Andrea Jackson Brooks, President; Paul A. Kowalski, Vice President; Nathan Jones, Second Vice President; Lewis Kaufman, Treasurer; Mabel Carroll, Secretary; and Directors Erik Clemons, Robert Cole, Carleen Elliott and Awilda Figueroa, M.D.
