PRESIDENT OF NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTERS TO ATTEND 45TH ANNIVERSARY GALA

CORNELL SCOTT-HILL HEALTH CENTER CELEBRATING 45 YEARS OF SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITY ON OCTOBER 18TH

New Haven, CT. — The Cornell Scott-Hill Health Center, a leading provider of community healthcare for forty-five years, is pleased to announce that Tom Van Coverden, President and CEO of the National Association of Community Health Centers (NACHC), will be attending the health center's upcoming 45th anniversary celebration.

The health center will be marking forty-five years of service to the community at a special event titled "Taking Flight" on Saturday, October 18th at the Omni Hotel in New Haven. The event will feature dinner, dancing and a silent auction as well as a special tribute to Andrea Jackson-Brooks, the health center's long-serving Board president who recently stepped down.

Van Coverden along with other members of NACHC's leadership team will be in attendance.

"Since being founded by Cornell Scott and other members of the New Haven community in 1968, the Cornell Scott-Hill Health Center has stood as leader in community healthcare. They consistently deliver innovative, high quality care to those in need and have never wavered in their commitment to meeting the needs of the communities they serve. I am honored to recognize them for their longstanding service to greater New Haven," said Van Coverden.

Founded in 1971, NACHC is a non-profit organization whose mission is to enhance and expand access to quality, community-responsive health care for America's medically underserved and uninsured.

NACHC represents the nation's network of over 1,200 Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHCs), which serve 23 million people through over 9,000 sites located in all of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and Guam.
