CORNELL SCOTT-HILL HEALTH CENTER KICKS OFF SECOND YEAR AT GATEWAY COMMUNITY COLLEGE; HOSTS DESIGN CONTEST IN CELEBRATION

New Haven, CT. — The Cornell Scott-Hill Health Center, a leading provider of community healthcare for forty-five years, is pleased to announce it is kicking off its second year of service at Gateway Community College in New Haven.

Located in Room 114 of Gateway’s downtown campus, the health center’s medical and behavioral health clinic provides primary care, urgent care and mental health counseling to Gateway’s students, staff and faculty. Since opening in August Of 2013, the health center has provided care for over 500 members of the Gateway community.

To celebrate the Center’s first year of service and kick off its second year, health center will host an anniversary party at the Gateway care site today, Wednesday, September 3rd from 12:15 p.m. to 1:15 p.m. Students, faculty and staff are invited to participate in the celebration, visit with staff, and find out more about the health center’s services. They can also get information on the health center’s Gateway t-shirt design contest.

The contest, in which participants are being asked to design a t-shirt that represents the connection between education and health, is open to all Gateway students, faculty and staff. The contest will run from September 3rd to September 30th. The designer of the winning entry will receive a $200 gift card.
