COMMUNITY HEALTH NETWORK OF CONNECTICUT PROVIDES EAGLE- LEVEL SPONSORSHIP FOR HEALTH CENTER'S 45TH ANNIVERSARY

CORNELL SCOTT-HILL HEALTH CENTER CELEBRATING 45 YEARS OF SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITY ON OCTOBER 18TH

New Haven, CT. — The Cornell Scott-Hill Health Center, a leading provider of community healthcare for forty-five years, is pleased to announce the addition of Community Health Network of Connecticut (CHNCT) as an eagle-level sponsor for its upcoming 45th anniversary celebration.

The health center will be marking forty-five years of service to the community at a special event titled "Taking Flight" on Saturday, October 18th at the Omni Hotel in New Haven. The event will feature dinner, dancing and a silent auction as well as a special tribute to Andrea Jackson-Brooks, the health center's long-serving Board president who recently stepped down.

"We are thrilled to have CHNCT onboard as a sponsor for our anniversary event. Our organizations have a long history of mutual support and we're pleased to see that continue," said Michael Taylor, the health center's CEO.

Cornell Scott, the founder and former President of Cornell Scott-Hill Health Center, was a driving force behind the establishment of CHNCT, a Wallingford-based nonprofit consortium of federally qualified health centers (FQHC). When founded, CHNCT acted as a managed care organization serving HUSKY A and B and Charter Oak Health Plan recipients. Today, it provides administrative functions for program beneficiaries who receive services from any medical providers enrolled with the Department of Social Services. Specifically, CHNCT makes referrals, helps with appointments, provides intensive care management for clients with exceptional health challenges, obtains prior authorizations, and provides quality management.
