

Leadership Profile

Kevin L. Maddox Chief Financial Officer

Earlier this year, Kevin Maddox joined the Cornell Scott-Hill Health Center's leadership team as Chief Financial Officer, bringing with him over twenty years of experience as a chief financial officer in a community health center setting. As Cornell Scott-Hill Health Center's Chief Financial Officer, Kevin oversees the organization's yearly operating budget, while ensuring compliance with all regulations concerning the expenditure of federal and state funds. Additionally, Kevin produces monthly and annual financial statements, handles all budgeting and forecasting, and oversees payroll, purchasing, and accounts payable/receivable.

Throughout Kevin's career, he has been a leader, providing executive-level financial guidance to community health centers in Colorado, Missouri, Mississippi and Louisiana. Most recently, Kevin served as CFO for both Sunrise Community Health and the North Colorado Health Alliance in Evans, Colorado.

During his twenty year career as a Chief Financial Officer, Kevin has experienced consistent growth and progressive responsibility, accumulating many key skills along the way. Kevin's areas of expertise include:

- Financial recovery planning and implementation
- Computerized accounting systems
- Budget preparation and forecasting
- Financial reporting
- Personnel management
- Strategic planning
- Accounting and information technology infrastructure
- Accumulation of reserves
- Management of accounts receivable

While Kevin's career has revolved around numbers, he is more inclined to talk about mission statements. Kevin is a strong believer in the health center's mission to "measurably improve the health and well-being of the communities we serve by providing excellent and compassionate care, accessible to all," and is committed to doing his part to help the Center achieve that mission.

Kevin received his Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Northeast Louisiana University in Monroe, Louisiana, and his M.B.A. from Louisiana Tech University in Ruston, Louisiana.
