

Cornell Scott
Hill Health
Center

ELSIE COFIELD

Women and Girls

HIV/AIDS AWARENESS AWARDS

Thursday, April 20, 2017 • 5:30 – 7:30 PM

BRAMS Hall, 150 Kimberly Ave, New Haven

Join us as we recognize amazing people who have done great work for HIV/AIDS in the Greater New Haven area:

- Nijajuan Howard • Dr. Pellenberg • Trinidad Medina
- Liberty Community Services

- Admission is free and open to the public
- Light refreshments will be available

Featuring Guest Speaker Gloria Searson

Gloria Searson is a talented entrepreneur, renowned healthcare advocate, community leader, educator and speaker in the area of HIV/AIDS and Hepatitis C. She has had the opportunity to be the guest/keynote speaker in cities across the country and abroad. Gloria birthed the Coalition On Positive Health Empowerment (COPEhealth.org). As President and Founding Director, Gloria leads COPE in its commitment to eradicate Hepatitis C.

cornellscott.org

This event is brought to you by the Cornell Scott-Hill Health Center
Infectious Diseases Division.

In Recognition of National Women & Girls HIV/AIDS Awareness Day