CORNELL SCOTT–HILL HEALTH CENTER TO HOST ART CONTEST IN CELEBRATION OF NATIONAL HEALTH CENTER WEEK

Winners Will Receive $50.00 Gift Cards and Have Their Artwork Featured in a Calendar

New Haven, CT. — In celebration of National Health Center Week, the Cornell Scott-Hill Health Center is hosting its 1st Annual Art Contest. The theme for this inaugural event is “The Art of Being Healthy.” To enter, artists are being asked to draw a picture that represents what being healthy means to them.

The contest is open to all Connecticut residents and features six different categories based on age: 5 and under, 6 - 8 year olds, 9 -11 year olds, 12 -14 year olds, 15 -17 year olds and 18 and older. A grand prize winner will be selected for each category as well as a runner up. Both the grand prize winner and the runner up from each category will have their art featured in the Cornell Scott-Hill Health Center 2012 calendar. The grand prize winner in each category will also receive a $50.00 gift certificate. And everyone who enters will receive a FREE copy of the Cornell Scott-Hill Health Center 2012 calendar.

The contest kicks off on August 8th and runs through August 15th. Entry forms can be picked up at the following Cornell Scott-Hill Health Center care sites: 400-428 Columbus Avenue, New Haven; 393 Columbus Avenue, New Haven; 226 Dixwell Avenue, New Haven; 60-62 Grant Street, New Haven; 232 Cedar Street, New Haven; 911-913 State Street, New Haven; 285 Main Street, West Haven; the Cornell Scott-Hill Health
